

Voting Procedures

This document will elaborate on the voting procedure during the DCCC Annual General Meeting (AGM) in Beijing on March 30th, 2022 – 14:00-16:00.

Who can vote?

Corporate members of the Danish Chamber of Commerce in China can vote.

Every member corporation has 1 vote in total. I.e., should a member company attend the AGM with two representatives – then the member company still only has the right to cast 1 vote.

Individual members can not cast a vote – but they can nominate themselves as candidates for the Board.

Who can be voted for?

Candidates can nominate themselves to run for the Board of DCCC. All candidates must be current DCCC members.
